

Condensed C.V.
James S. Brudvik, DDS, FACP
Professor Emeritus in Prosthodontics
University of Washington

Born; 4 May, 1933 in North Dakota

Primary and Secondary Education at Mayville, N D

Pre-Dental Studies at North Dakota State University, Fargo ND (1951-53)

Dental School at University of Minnesota (1953-57)

Graduate Dental Education;

Residency in Prosthodontics at Walter Reed Army Medical Center (1962-67)

Residency in Maxillofacial Prosthetics at University of Texas, Houston, M.D.

Anderson Cancer Hospital (1968-69)

Board Certification in 1967

---

Special positions held (US Army Dental Corps);

Consultant to the Surgeon General for Prosthodontics in South East Asia 1967-68

Developed and Directed Maxillofacial Laboratory at Walter Reed for U S Army support of Maxillofacial Prosthetics, Word Wide (1969-72)

Director of Dental Education, US Army (1972-73)

Commander of Regional Dental Laboratory, Ft. Sam Houston, TX (1973-76)

Consultant to the Chief of the Army Dental Corp for Removable Prosthodontics

Director (Dean) of Dental Division of Health Sciences Academy, US Army, Ft. Sam Houston, TX (1976 until retirement in 1979).

Positions held at Dental School, University of Washington;

Developed Clinical Course in Geriatric Prosthodontics and Co-Director of the course (1979-85)

Associate Director of Graduate Prosthodontics (1985-90)

Director of Graduate Prosthodontics (1990-95)

Retirement and Emeritus Status 1998

Specialty Organizations

Fellowship in;

Academy of Prosthodontics, Academy of Maxillofacial Prosthetics ( Past President ,1982), American College of Prosthodontics ( Founding Member) and International College of Prosthodontics (Founding Member)

Publications

Published papers: About 65 with 16 since 2002

Text Books; Author, Advanced Removable Partial Dentures (Quintessence Inc.)

Contributing Author to Mosby's Dental Laboratory Series

Current Status

Fully retired but lecturing and clinical teaching to the Graduate Program in Prosthodontics, University of Washington, one day a week